The Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter is equivalent to a diocese, established by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012 for people nurtured in the Anglican tradition who wish to become Catholic. Parishes and communities in the Ordinariates are fully Roman Catholic, but retain elements of Anglican traditions in their liturgy, hospitality and ministries. Based in Houston, Texas, this Ordinariate has more than 40 Roman Catholic parishes and communities across the United States and Canada. St John the Baptist Catholic Church in Bridgeport is the Ordinariate parish in the Philadelphia region. All Catholics are welcome to share in the Ordinariate's spiritual life.
